This world renowned scientist, found Garcinia Cambogia (Hydroxycitric Acid) to be so important in the battle against the world wide fight against obesity, that he, together with his colleagues put their reputations and the reputations of the esteemed universities they represent, on the line for the good, health and longevity of mankind. They wrote an open letter to the US Federal Drug Administration (FDA) to tell the world that

Garcinia Cambogia is the solution to the massive problem of obesity that we have been looking for:

Fast, Safe & Scientifically Proven.
